

SMILE & SUCCEED

FOR

Teens

A CRASH COURSE
IN FACE-TO-FACE
COMMUNICATION

Must-Know People Skills for Today's Wired World

*Award-winning author of *Smile: Sell More with Amazing Customer Service

KIRT MANECKE

PRAISE FROM TEENS

"Smile & Succeed for Teens helped me realize that the way you put yourself into the world matters."

—NINA

"Now I know when to have my phone out and when not to."

—ISABELLE

"I found the book personally inspiring. I would not have known what to do and what not to do in an interview."

—JEREMIAH

"This book is very helpful as I often look down when I talk and I also have bad posture."

—BRANDON

"The book is valuable. For instance, I didn't really know there was a specific way to shake someone's hand."

—HANNAH

*"My big brother and I want to start a dog-walking business. Smile & Succeed for Teens will really help us get started."*

—CHASE

"This book helped me with eye contact, shaking hands, greeting people, and knowing what to wear for special occasions. I learned when to not be on my phone."

—GABI

"I found this book very helpful in using proper body language. I slouch a lot and now I know it isn't very respectful."

—NOLAN

"Smile & Succeed for Teens is useful to me because I am shy. I am a babysitter and I learned to smile and make eye contact. I love the pictures!"

—ISABELLA

"Now I know how to act in an interview."

—JAICIE

"The book is effective as I am not the best with eye contact."

—MATTHEW

"I like the tips and directions on smiling and how to shake hands."

—DEVON

"I use this book to prepare for an interview, get a job, learn how to speak to adults, and more."

—CHLOE

"I learned how not smiling can affect me. I am glad I read it."

—ANGELINA

Made in the U.S.A.

Copyright © 2014 by Kirt Manecke

All rights reserved.

This publication is protected under the U.S. Copyright Act of 1976 and all other applicable international, federal, state, and local laws. No part of this publication may be reproduced or transmitted in any form or by any means, mechanical or electronic, including photocopying and recording, or by any information storage and retrieval system, without permission in writing from the publisher, except in the case of brief excerpts in reviews and articles.

Published by Solid Press, LLC. Inquiries about this book should be addressed to the publisher: Solid Press, LLC, PO Box 145, Milford, MI 48381, kirt@smilethebook.com or 248-685-0483.

Library of Congress Control Number: 2014904957

www.SmileforTeens.com

Legal Notice

Please note that much of this publication is based on personal experience that has worked for the author. Your particular situation may not be exactly the same, and you should adjust your use of the information accordingly. Nothing in this book is meant to replace legal/professional advice. Please note that company websites, while accurate at the time of publication, are subject to change. Websites printed in this book are offered as a resource to you. These websites are not intended in any way to be or imply an endorsement on the part of Solid Press, LLC, nor do we vouch for the content of these sites for the life of this book.

Special discounts for bulk purchases are available for educational, business, fundraising or sales promotional use. Special editions or book excerpts can also be created to specifications. For details, please contact the Special Sales Department, Solid Press, LLC, PO Box 145, Milford, MI 48381, or kirt@smilethebook.com.

Summary: A quick, easy-to-read people and business skills handbook to help middle school and high school age teens succeed in school, work, and life.

Book Design: Becky Terhune

Illustrations: Andre Jolicoeur

ISBN: 978-0-9850762-1-4

A portion of the proceeds from the sale of this book is donated to animal welfare.

For young people working to make our world a better place.

And to my parents, John and Betsy—they lovingly taught me manners and how to treat people with respect.

My business successes are in large part due to them.

Also by Kirt Manecke:

Smile: Sell More with Amazing Customer Service

C😊NTENTS

Acknowledgments	x
Introduction	1
How to Get the Most Out of This Book	5

CHAPTER ONE

THE TOP TEN PEOPLE SKILLS

How to Make Your Friends and Customers Smile	7
Smile	8
Make Good Eye Contact	10
Turn Off the Electronics	12
Say Please and Thank You	15
Shake Hands Firmly	17
Introduce Yourself: Make a Friend	19
Pay Attention	22
Be Enthusiastic	24
Ask Questions	26
Practice Proper Body Language	27

CHAPTER TWO

GET THAT JOB

Use Your People Skills to Communicate Like a Pro	29
Find that Job	30
Put Together Powerful References	34
Create Your Own Job: Start with a Flyer	36
Prepare for Your Interview	37
Interview Like a Pro	39
Keep Your Job	42
Overcome Stress	43

CHAPTER THREE

KEEP THEM SMILING

More Top People Skills for Life, Work, and Volunteering	47
Apologize and Mean It	48
Call People by Name	50
Be Prepared: The Six P's	52
Dress for Success	54
Keep It Professional	56
Master Electronic Etiquette	58
Learn Your Business	60
Make It Easy for Customers to Do Business with You	61
Follow Up	63

CHAPTER FOUR

TREAT PEOPLE HOW YOU WANT TO BE TREATED

More Top People Skills and Customer Service Techniques	67
Acknowledge New Customers—Even When You're Busy	68
Help Customers Promptly	70
Answer the Phone with a Smile	72
Hold, Please: Ask Permission First	74
Give Change Carefully	76

CHAPTER FIVE

SELL MORE WITH GREAT PEOPLE SKILLS

More Secrets to Successful Selling and Fundraising	79
"Just Looking": Let Them Browse and Shop	80
Never Ask "Can I Help You?"	81
Don't Point—Walk and Show	83

When You Don't Know the Answer, Ask	85
Sell with Confidence	86
Ask for the Sale—Then Stop Talking	88
Promote Your Business or Event	90

CHAPTER SIX

KEEP CUSTOMERS SMILING AFTER THE SALE

Create Happy Repeat Customers and Donors with Powerful

People Skills.....	93
Handle Returns Graciously.....	94
Turn Complainers into Advocates.....	97

CHAPTER SEVEN

BE A ROCK STAR

Use Your Expertise and People Skills to Change the World 99

 Make Your Life Extraordinary:

Make a Difference	100
Rock Stars Wanted	102
Overcome the Fear of Fundraising	105
Ask for the Donation—Then Stop Talking.....	108
Rock the World—Find Your Cause	110

Putting it All Together 116

Notes 117

Index 123

About the Author 131

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Writing a book is a team effort—I doubt many people could go it alone. Thanks from the bottom of my heart to all those who have contributed to this project: book publishing ace Becky Ferguson, English teacher and mother Sharon Hammer, teacher consultant Tammy Hansford, author Steve Fadie, teacher Rachel Ferguson, teacher Alicia Quintana, business coach Colleen Kilpatrick, sales expert Larry Betzler, bookstore buyer Pam Herman, librarian and grandmother Phyllis Brantingham, mother Tammy Duncan, product development expert Karen May, mother and customer service advocate Kathy Olak, mother of six Debi Lundwall, father and small business owner Peter Wottowa, father and author Joe Keller, customer service professional Amy Gresock, business leader Richard Lindhorst, book publishing expert Kim Walter, content editor Paula Manzanero, and the helpful trio of women at Main Street Art in downtown Milford, Michigan.

A huge thank-you to a superstar group of teens who made certain the content is valuable, relevant, and easy to read: Nick Keller, Terena Weitkamp, Ben Gottlieb, Sasha Dudock, Nova Rayner, and Curtis Schmitt.

A special thank-you to my parents, John and Betsy Manecke, and to my late uncle Gene Balogh, whose spirit and work have always been an inspiration to me.

Thank you to my wonderful editor Liz Parks for pulling this book together.

And finally thank you to all my friends and colleagues, including those not mentioned here, for their very valuable insight, patience, and support in this endeavor.

INTRODUCTION

Smiling can be a competitive advantage—it makes every person feel a little better, and every situation a little brighter.

—RICHARD BRANSON, FOUNDER OF VIRGIN GROUP,
A LEADING INTERNATIONAL INVESTMENT GROUP

The Power of a Smile

When I was a teen I had a successful paper route, then a lawn-mowing service. Later I worked on the grounds crew at a golf course. Good people skills were key to my success.

You may wonder, exactly what are people skills? How do I learn them? The good news is, having good people skills is not that complicated. This book shows you exactly what you need to know.

In today's wired world, cell phones and other electronics, texting, and email are a reality. This makes having great people skills even more important. Smile & Succeed for Teens is based on my award-winning first book, Smile: Sell More with Amazing

Customer Service. Written for employers and employees, Smile received praise not only from the business community, but also from parents and educators. “Every teen in America needs to read this book!” one parent exclaimed. “It teaches important people skills kids need to succeed in their job and in life.”

With input from a variety of teens, educators, and parents, I created a customized version of Smile just for you. Like my first book, the tips and techniques on the following pages are based on the same proven customer service and sales methods used by successful businesses all over the world. These techniques will help you make more friends and earn more money. In addition, I’ve added valuable information on finding and keeping a job, overcoming stress, and the benefits of volunteering.

Good people skills are essential for landing a job and succeeding in your career. Getting a job can be very challenging and frightening. Smile & Succeed for Teens can help you stand out during a job interview. It can help make you a superstar employee—the type companies jump through hoops to have on their team.

People skills are among the top skills businesses expect when interviewing and hiring. Employers everywhere are saying that young people lack the people skills critical to be successful at work.

Good people skills are also essential if you are starting your own business. Whether selling items from your garden at your local farmers’ market, babysitting, lawn mowing, landscaping, tutoring, or working at a restaurant, you can Smile & Succeed!

Developing face-to-face communication skills is extremely important for young people. Personal relationships depend on them. So does success at school.

No other book presents valuable people skills customized for teens in such a short, simple format. You can read a chapter at a time and learn a new technique in just a few minutes. The contents can be read in any order. You can start today and have fun doing it!

THIS BOOK WILL HELP YOU:

- Develop people skills critical to success in a wired world
- Boost your self-esteem and confidence dealing with people
- Master people skills to create successful relationships with friends, parents, teachers, and customers
- Interview like a pro and get that job
- Develop customer service and sales skills to succeed on the job
- Be comfortable and confident selling and fundraising
- Become a successful young entrepreneur
- Enjoy volunteering and working more than you ever imagined

You'll learn how easy it can be to impress your friends and family, satisfy your customers, give back to your community as a volunteer, and create donors (people who donate to fundraisers and nonprofit organizations). The quick, easy tips will help you treat people with respect. You'll have more confidence at school and work. Your new people skills will make your customers smile and come back for more. You'll be comfortable selling and fundraising. You'll notice people coming back and talking positively about you.

Now get out there and smile!

HOW TO GET THE MOST OUT OF THIS BOOK

THIS BOOK IS A HANDBOOK. It's not a textbook. There won't be a quiz at the end (sigh of relief). If the ideas are new to you, you may want to take some time to digest and practice each chapter before moving on to the next. You can read straight through or consult the contents to decide which sections you want to read first. If this is your personal copy, don't be afraid to make notes and highlight important information.

The Top Ten People Skills will help you achieve success in school, work, and life. If you take away nothing else from this book, these 10 powerful techniques will help you create awesome relationships. Strong people skills produce a high degree of success in anything you do.

Take a few minutes or longer each week or month to review the entire book so the best practices become habit. Be sure to read all the chapters whether you are currently employed or not.

Some tips in this book may not seem important now, but they are. Whether or not you have a job, or will soon be working, the tips in this book will help you make more friends, and succeed in school and at work. Reviewing this book regularly will keep you sharp—and keep your friends, customers, and donors delighted!

1

THE TOP TEN PEOPLE SKILLS

How to Make Your Friends and Customers Smile

1

SMILE

Smile! Make it a good one. According to Malcolm Gladwell, author of Blink, first impressions occur instantly or within two seconds.

A smile can create a friend. It can create a customer for life. Smiling is one of the most important people skills.

A smile is powerful!

SMILE AND SAY HELLO

This may sound basic, but you'd be surprised how many people fail to greet others, whether family, friend, or customer, with a smile. When you meet someone socially, focus on that person and greet him or her with a smile. When customers enter your workplace, greet each one promptly and politely.

HERE'S HOW

1. Smile. Make it a warm, genuine, heartfelt smile.
2. Look people in the eye.
3. Say "Hello!"
4. Speak in a warm, upbeat, and friendly manner. Be sincere.

THE POWER OF A SMILE

When I owned a specialty retail store, I noticed that a teenage employee, Paul, was not smiling and greeting customers properly.

I pulled Paul aside and asked, “Why aren’t you smiling and saying hello to customers when they walk in?” Paul responded, “They all hate me.” I assured him he was wrong and asked why he felt that way. He said he just knew people didn’t like him. I reminded him that we need to greet customers properly. I asked him to review our training, smile, and greet every customer, then see what happens.

That afternoon I observed Paul from a distance. He was greeting customers with a warm smile and a friendly “Hello.” I spoke with Paul two days later. I asked how he was feeling. He exclaimed, “They all like me!” I replied, “Of course they do.” From that day on Paul was our leading employee. That’s the power of a smile!

WIRED TIP: 😊 😊 😊 All of these emoticons cannot equal a genuine, heartfelt smile from a real live person!

A smile is the curve that sets everything straight.

—PHYLLIS DILLER, COMEDIAN AND ACTRESS